

Please don't take away the No Call List for telemarketers. The calls are disruptive to family life. I have teenagers on the road and do not want my phone line tied up with these worthless calls. I buy what I want when I want. I give to charity when I can and to whom I choose. We deserve better than constant harassment by these companies.